HONG KONG, 18 March 2019 -- Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group has introduced its legendary hospitality to China's capital with the opening of Mandarin Oriental Wangfujing, Beijing.

The hotel is located on the upper floors of WF CENTRAL, one of the city's premium lifestyle retail centres. It features 73 rooms and suites which are amongst the largest in city. The rooms are designed with a contemporary residential style combined with subtle traditional Chinese elements, an array of luxury amenities and expansive, spa-like bathrooms. Many rooms have superb views towards the Forbidden City.

In keeping with the Group's reputation for dining excellence, Mandarin Oriental Wangfujing has two restaurants and a rooftop bar – all of which have direct access to an expansive garden terrace. Café Zi is a relaxed environment featuring pan-Asian cuisine, while Mandarin Grill + Bar focuses on classic dishes. MO Bar is a sophisticated lounge, serving innovative cocktails with an international DJ.

The Spa at Mandarin Oriental Wangfujing offers a range of curated wellness and beauty treatments as well as a 25-metre indoor lap pool with natural light and a comprehensive gym.

“We are delighted to bring Mandarin Oriental's legendary hospitality to Beijing and look forward to welcoming guests to the beautiful environs of Mandarin Oriental Wangfujing,” said General Manager Mark S. Bradford. “Our proximity to the sights and sounds of historical Beijing, and our desire to provide personalised service that comes from the heart, inspires all of us every day to deliver our very best,” he added.
